FOR GOVERNOR ION. HIESTER CLYMER

Deny it if you Can.

The editor of the Republican constantly boasts of the unity and strength of his party, and complains that we are trying to "deceive honest Democrats," by insisting that from the disaffection in the ranks of the Radicals Clymer will be elected. It may perchance be criminal to disannas of those who cry peace when there is no peace, and who write about the party as though no difference of opinion existed in its ranks. But we confess our inility to discover either wisdom or honesty in this course. Disguise it as we may, the ant fact does not admit of mistake. The Union Party is divided-so divided and acted that its defeat will be inevitable nless something be meanwhile done to de-rmine authoritatively its course on the question of restoration, its conditions and consees. The National Convention. We refused, for awhile, to endorse the call for a National Union Convention at Philadelphia, on the 14th of next month, fearing that it would only prove but another device of demagogues to subserve some partion. Still, the New York Times, persis- Convention to select Delegates. tently claims that it is to be held as a means of "nationalizing the Republican party."-If it shall win support from the Radicals sufficient to make it a valuable ally, the Democratic party will greet it as a sister organization, or as a tributary, flowing towards, and into, the great ocean of Democracy.

We call attention of our Democratic friends, and especially those who have lately been so earnestly solicited to join the Johnson party, to the article published in this issue, entitled, "Disband the Democracy," the unanimous sentiment of the leading spirits of the Democratic party.

We have from time to time, and shall contime to give the opinion of the leading political writers and speakers of the country on this important question. Let it be perused and digested with care and we feel satisfied that every Democrat will see the wisdom and necessity, as we have all along contended, of sticking firmly to the Democracy and to its will read the article and say, amen.

The London correspondent of the New York News, in his last letter says:

The prospects of the harvest are not very promising in England, and I expect before the end of the year to see breadstuffs at least 40 to 50 per cent. dearer than the present quotations. This is good news for your Western men, and it is true

We endorse the late call for a National Convention. But it can do no good unless it draws its supporters from the Radical which Prof. Anderson, of New Jersey, was party. The Ass-essorship.

The Devil always uses his servants for a foot-ball. He appears to be poking all his horns at poor Doctor John, at once. In the shape of "Disorganizers," he starts an op-position sheet and renders both abolition papers non-selfsustaining. Then, behold! he is kicked overboard, by the "loyal" President whom he supported, and the very radical traitors in the Senate to whom he had sold and dedicated his hittle soul. Then, oh memory! how basely has he crawled through mire and dirt; how long and persistently has he lied and calumniated in the service of his from the pen of BRICK POMEROY. This is party and master. The ambition of the 'Disorganizers' first induced them to start Dr. John in business, that he might do for them what they were ashamed to do themselves. His enthusiastic zeal in their behalf, his squalid poverty, and his known disgust with the eternal quack-ing of the insulting ducks of Millville, promised all that the black heart of an abolitionist could desire. — What short-sightedness! They forgot that baseness, like a two-edged sword, might be turned against them. The Doctor "waxed fat and kicked." He snapped at the hands inciples. We feel sure that all Democrats back, cheated and contemned those who ill read the article and say, amen. that fed him, and like the negro on horsemust come down. - Com.

> The Fourth at New Columbus. The people began to gather from the surrounding country at an early hour, and everything wore an air of cheerfulness,—notwithstanding the indications of rain. Sunday School addresses were made by Prof. Furman, the present Principal of the School, and R. R. Pealer, Esq., of Bloomsburg. R. J. Bell, Esq., of Wilkesbarre, delivered an address on the necessary requisites to our prosperity and perpetuity as a Republic. Dr. Bliss followed with a very appropriate closing speech. Everything went off quietly, and the people started for their homes about 5 o'clock, and I venture to say, rejoicing that they had participated in celebrating the minetieth anniversary of our independence.

> "That Letter." Bloomsburg, March 2, 1866.

Hon, Hugh McCulloch, Secretary of the Treasury

Sir :- I inclose you a copy of my issue this week, I have likewise addressed a copy to the President. You will see that the harge that I am oppo ng him is fal If I am sustained by yourself and the President; if the patronage is not taken from us and given to those who oppose us, we shall be able to make our vigorous Union organization a unit and TRIUMPHANTLY SUS-TAIN THE ADMINISTRATION. Respectfully, PALEMON JOHN, Assessor 13th District Penn'a.

The above letter appears in the last number of the Republican. Was there ever such feebleness of style in a letter written with so much care and on which such great hopes depended. Has the Doctor never learnt the old maxim that "in fewer words the mind conceives more?" That letter ought not to have occupied over three lines. Thus: The charge that I am opposing the President is Samuel J. Randall. false; and whether I shall do so or not, de Lewis W. Rose, sessorship shall be taken from me or not. For write that letter again. The principles at issue between the President and Congress, are all the same to me. I am for sale, and go tant that he may be snugly seated in the for the party that pays my price, viz : the assessorship.

The above letter was sent to the Secretary of the Treasury long after the issue between the President and the Rump had been made up, by the veto of the Freedman's Bureau Bill, and the President's celebrated speech of the twenty-second of February. What say you Dis-union radicals, at thus being exposed for sale like sheep in the shamoles, by the editor of the paper you swear What value is ascribed to your principles, or have you none, that you are willing to be thus sold out by your representative Saint John, to whose house you expect to go when you die? The Doctor does not wait to be approached or tempted. It is said that the Devil tempts every person; but Doctor John tempts the Devil. The President and Secretary being thus informed by that letter that Doctor John is purchaseable, concluded they would buy him any time they might want him and would lay him aside for the present. The letter having been shown to the Radical Senators, they concluded that as | evidently looking to the interest of their conthe President could pay more than they, it was not worth while for them to try to retain him :- Hence their unanimous confirmation of Mr. Clark.

Anniversary Celebration. Agreeably to arrangements, a respectable ssemblage of the citizens and children of Bloom and Montour townships, convened in the grove of Mr. Thomas Knorr, near the Aqueduct, on the Fourth of July, to celebrate the ninetieth anniversary of national independence. The good things of this world have each their ap-It is the mission of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH

For twelve years its success as a protective and a remedy has been without check or drawback. It is strong negative evidence of this fact, that the efficacy of the article as a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness constipation, nervousness, general debility, and in-termittent fevers, has never been questioned. As proof positive of its infallibility in such cases, he statements of public men whose names are fa miliar as household words, have from time to time been given to the world.

If its reputation is not founded in facts, then truth is a shadow, and the utterances of conscientious cit-izens are of no more value than "dicers" oaths."

And what is its reputation? Let the progress of its sales answer the inquiry. Where twenty dozen hottles of Hostetter's Bitters were sold in 1855 five Aundred dozen are disposed of now.
